(13) On a receiving order being made, the Court shall appoint a licensed trustee of the property of the bankrupt, having regard, as far as the Court deems just, to the wishes of the creditors.

(14) Where the debtor appears at the hearing of the petition and denies the truth of the facts alleged in the petition, the Court may, instead of dismissing the petition, stay all proceedings on the petition on such terms as it may see fit to impose on the petitioner as to costs, or on the debtor to prevent alienation of his property, and for such time as may be required for trial of the issue relating to the disputed facts.

(15) The Court may for other sufficient reason make an order staying the proceedings under a petition, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Court may think just.

(16) A petitioner who is resident out of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines may be ordered to give security for costs to the debtor and proceedings under the petition may be stayed until the security is furnished.

(17) Where proceedings on a petition have been stayed or have not been prosecuted with due diligence and effect, the Court may—

- (a) if by reason of the delay or for any other cause it is deemed just, substitute or add as petitioner any other creditor to whom the debtor may be indebted in the amount required by this Act;
- (b) make a receiving order on the petition of the other creditor; and
- (c) shall dismiss on such terms as it may deem just the petition in the stayed or non-prosecuted proceedings.

(18) Where proceedings on a petition have been stayed for trial of the question of the validity of the creditor's debt and the question has been decided in favour of the validity of the debt, the petitioning creditor may apply to the Registrar to fix a day on which further proceedings on the petition may be had; and the Registrar, on production of the judgement or certified copy of the judgement, shall give notice—

- (a) to the petitioner by post or otherwise of the time and place fixed for the hearing of the petition;
- (b) to the debtor at the address given in the notice to dispute; and
- (c) to the attorneys-at-law for the creditor and debtor.

(19) A petition shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the Court.

(20) Any creditor whose claim against a partnership is sufficient to entitle him to present a bankruptcy petition may present a petition against any one or more partners of the firm without including the others.

(21) Where a receiving order has been made against one member of a partnership and any other petition against a member of the same partnership is filed, the Court may give such directions for consolidating the proceedings under the petitions as it thinks just.

(22) Where a debtor against whom a petition has been filed dies, the proceedings shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be continued as if he were alive.

deceased debtor, except as required for payment of the reasonable funeral and testamentary expenses, until the petition is disposed of, otherwise, in addition to any penalties to which he may be subject, he is personally liable.

(3) Nothing in this section invalidates any payment or transfer of property made or any act or thing done by the legal personal representative in good faith before the service of a petition referred to in subsection (2).

6. Costs of petitioner

(1) Where a receiving order is made, the costs of the petitioner shall be taxed and be payable out of the estate unless the Court otherwise orders.

7. Appointment of interim receiver

(1) The Court may, if it is shown to be necessary for the protection of the estate of a debtor, at any time after the filing of a petition for a receiving order and before a receiving order is made, appoint a licensed trustee as interim receiver of the property of the debtor or any part of that property and direct the licensed trustee to take immediate possession of the property on such undertaking being given by the petitioner as the Court may impose with respect to interference with the debtor's legal rights and with respect to damages in the event of the petition being dismissed.

(2) The interim receiver appointed under subsection (1) may, under the direction of the Court, take conservatory measures and summarily dispose of property that is perishable or likely to depreciate rapidly in value and exercise such control over the business of the debtor as the Court deems advisable; but the interim receiver shall not unduly interfere with the debtor in the carrying out of his business except as may be necessary for conservatory purposes or to comply with the order of the Court.

(3) Where a proposal is made to one or more secured creditors in respect of secured claims of a particular class, the proposal shall be made to all secured creditors in respect of the secured claims of that class.

(4) Secured claims may be included in the same class where the interests of the creditors holding those claims are sufficiently similar to give them a commonality of interest, taking into account—

- (a) the nature of the debts giving rise to the claims;
- (b) the nature and priority of the security in respect of the claims;
- (c) the remedies available to the creditors in the absence of the proposal, and the extent to which the creditors would recover their claims by exercising those remedies;
- (d) the treatment of the claims under the proposal, and the extent to which the claims would be paid under the proposal; and
- (e) such further criteria, consistent with those set out in paragraphs (a) to (d), as may be prescribed.

(8) All questions relating to a proposal, except the question of accepting or refusing the proposal, shall be decided by ordinary resolution of the creditors to whom the proposal was made.

(9) Proceedings for a proposal shall be commenced in the case of an insolvent person by lodging with a licensed trustee, and in the case of a bankrupt by lodging with the trustee of the estate, a copy of the proposal in writing setting out the terms of the proposal and the particulars of any securities or sureties proposed, signed by the person making the proposal and the proposed sureties, if any, and—

(10) A proposal made in respect of a bankrupt shall be approved by the inspectors before any further action is taken on the proposal.

(11) No proposal or any security or guarantee tendered with the proposal may be withdrawn pending the decision of the creditors and the Court.

(12) Subsection (11) shall not be construed as preventing an insolvent person in respect of whom a proposal has been made from subsequently making an assignment.

(13) The trustee shall make or cause to be made such an appraisal and investigation of the affairs and property of the debtor as to enable the trustee to estimate with reasonable accuracy the financial situation of the debtor and the cause of the debtor's financial difficulties or insolvency, and shall report the result of the appraisal and investigation to the meeting of the creditors.

(14) The trustee shall, when filing a proposal under section 43, file with the proposal—

- (c) a report containing prescribed representations by the person making the proposal regarding the preparation of the cash flow statement, in the prescribed form, prepared and signed by the person making the proposal.

(15) Subject to subsection (16), any creditor may obtain a copy of the cash flow statement on request made to the trustee.

(16) The Court may order that a cash flow statement or any part of that statement shall not be released to some or all of the creditors pursuant to subsection (15) where it is satisfied that—

- (a) such release would unduly prejudice the insolvent person; and
- (b) non-release would not unduly prejudice the creditor or creditors in question.

(17) If the trustee acts in good faith and takes reasonable care in reviewing the cash flow statement, the trustee is not liable for loss or damage to any person resulting from that person's reliance on the cash flow statement.

(18) Subject to any direction of the Court under section 13(2)(a), the trustee under a proposal in respect of an insolvent person shall, for the purpose of monitoring the business and financial affairs, have access to and examine the property of the insolvent person, including the premises, books, records and other financial documents, to the extent necessary to adequately assess the business and financial affairs of the insolvent person, from the filing of the proposal until the proposal is approved by the Court or the insolvent person becomes bankrupt, and shall—

- (a) file a report on the state of the business and financial affairs of the insolvent person containing any prescribed information—

(20) The Court may, on application by the trustee, the interim receiver, if any, appointed under section 9 or a creditor, at any time before the meeting of creditors, declare that the proposal is deemed to have been refused by the creditors if the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) the debtor has not acted, or is not acting, in good faith and with due diligence;
- (b) the proposal will not likely be accepted by the creditors; or
- (c) the creditors as a whole would be materially prejudiced if the application under this subsection is rejected.

26. Filing of proof of secured claim

(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), a secured creditor to whom a proposal has been made in respect of a particular secured claim may respond to the proposal by filing with the trustee a proof of secured claim in the prescribed form, and may vote on all questions relating to the proposal, in respect of that entire claim, and sections 114 to 116 apply, in so far as they are applicable, with such modifications as the circumstances require, to proofs of secured claim.

(2) Where a proposal made to a secured creditor in respect of a secured claim includes a proposed assessed value of the security in respect of the claim, the secured creditor may file with the trustee a proof of secured claim in the prescribed form, and may vote as a secured creditor on all questions relating to the proposal in respect of an amount equal to the lesser of—

- (a) the amount of the claim; and
- (b) the proposed assessed value of the security.

(3) Where the proposed assessed value is less than the amount of the claim of the secured creditor, the secured creditor may file with the trustee a proof of claim in the prescribed form, and may vote as an unsecured creditor on all questions relating to the proposal in respect of an amount equal to the difference between the amount of the claim and the proposed assessed value.

(4) Where a secured creditor is dissatisfied with the proposed assessed value of his security, the secured creditor may apply to the Court within fifteen days after the proposal is sent to the creditors, to have the proposed assessed value revised; and the Court may revise the proposed assessed value, in which case the revised value applies for the purposes of this Part.

(5) Where no secured creditor having a secured claim of a particular class files a proof of secured claim at or before the meeting of creditors, the secured creditors having claims of that class shall be deemed to have voted for the refusal of the proposal.

27. Where secured creditors may not vote

A secured creditor to whom a proposal has not been made in respect of a particular secured claim may not file a proof of secured claim in respect of that claim.

28. Secured claims upon bankruptcy

On the bankruptcy of an insolvent person who made a proposal to one or more secured creditors in respect of secured claims, any proof of secured claim filed pursuant to section 26 ceases to be valid or effective, and sections 102 and 117 to 124 apply in respect of a proof of claim filed by any secured creditor in the bankruptcy.

- (b) a report on the reasonableness of the cash flow statement, in the prescribed form, prepared and signed by the trustee; and
- (c) a report containing prescribed representations by the insolvent person regarding the preparation of the cash flow statement, in the prescribed form, prepared and signed by the insolvent person.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), any creditor may obtain a copy of the cash flow statement on request made to the trustee.

(4) The Court may order that a cash flow statement or any part thereof shall not be released to some or all of the creditors pursuant to subsection (3) where it is satisfied that—

- (a) such release would unduly prejudice the insolvent person; and
- (b) non-release would not unduly prejudice the creditor or creditors in question.

(5) If the trustee acts in good faith and takes reasonable care in reviewing the cash flow statement, the trustee is not liable for loss or damage to any person resulting from that person's reliance on the cash flow statement.

(6) Within five days after the filing of a notice of intention under subsection (1), the trustee named in the notice shall send to every known creditor, in the prescribed manner, a copy of the notice.

(7) Subject to any direction of the Court under section 9(2)(a), the trustee under a notice of intention in respect of an insolvent person—

- (a) shall, for the purpose of monitoring the insolvent person's business and financial affairs, have access to and examine the insolvent person's property, including his premises, books, records and other financial documents, to the extent necessary to adequately assess the insolvent person's business and financial affairs, from the filing of the notice of intention until a proposal is filed or the insolvent person becomes bankrupt; and

(8) Where an insolvent person fails to comply with subsection (2), or where the trustee fails to file a proposal with the Supervisor under section 43(1) within a period of thirty days after the day the notice of intention was filed under subsection (1), or within any extension of that period granted under subsection (9)—

- (a) the insolvent person is, on the expiration of that period or that extension, as the case may be, deemed to have made an assignment;
- (b) the trustee shall forthwith file a report thereof in the prescribed form with the Official Receiver, who shall issue a certificate of assignment in the prescribed form, which has the same effect for the purposes of this Act as an assignment filed pursuant to section 24; and
- (c) the trustee shall, within five days after the day the certificate mentioned in paragraph (b) is issued, send notice of the meeting of creditors under section 92, at which meeting the creditors may by ordinary resolution, notwithstanding section 185, affirm the appointment of the trustee or appoint another licensed trustee in lieu of that trustee.

(9) The insolvent person may, before the expiration of the thirty day period mentioned in subsection (8) or any extension thereof granted under this subsection, apply to the Court for an extension, or further extension, as the case may be, of that period, and the Court may grant such extensions, not exceeding forty-five days for any individual extension and not exceeding in the aggregate five months after the expiration of the thirty day period mentioned in subsection (8), if satisfied on each application that—

(3) Where there is no quorum of secured creditors in respect of a particular class of secured claims, the secured creditors having claims of that class shall be deemed to have voted for the refusal of the proposal.

39. Trustee to apply to Court for approval of proposal

(2) Where the Court is of the opinion that the terms of the proposal are not reasonable or are not calculated to benefit the general body of creditors, the Court shall refuse to approve the proposal.

(3) Where any of the facts mentioned in section 164 or 168 are proved against the debtor, the Court shall refuse to approve the proposal unless it provides reasonable security for the payment of not less than twenty-five cents on the dollar on all the unsecured claims provable against the estate of the debtor or such percentage thereof as the Court may direct.

41. Payment of preferred claims and trustee's costs

(1) No proposal shall be approved by the Court that does not provide for the payment in priority to other claims of all claims directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a debtor and for the payment of all proper fees and expenses of the trustee on and incidental to the proceedings arising out of the proposal or in the bankruptcy.

(2) No proposal in respect of an employer shall be approved by the Court unless—

(a) it provides for payment to the employees and former employees, immediately after Court approval of the proposal, of amounts equal to the amounts that they would be qualified to receive under section 126(1)(c) if the employer became bankrupt on the date of the filing of the notice of intention, or proposal if no notice of intention was filed, as well as wages, salaries, commissions or compensation for services rendered after that date and before the Court approval of the proposal, together with, in the case of travelling salesmen, disbursements properly incurred by those salesmen in and about the bankrupt's business during the same period; and

(7) Subject to subsections (1) to (3), the Court may either approve or refuse to approve the proposal.

42. Where proposal approved by Court made by bankrupt

(1) The approval by the Court of a proposal made after bankruptcy operates to annul the bankruptcy and to re-vest in the debtor, or in such other person as the Court may approve, all the right, title and interest of the trustee in the property of the debtor, unless the terms of the proposal otherwise provide.

(2) Where the Court refuses to approve a proposal in respect of an insolvent person a copy of which has been filed under section 43—the trustee shall, within such time and in such form and manner as are prescribed, so inform all the creditors and the Supervisor.

45. Court may annul the proposal

(1) Where default is made in the performance of any provision in a proposal, or where it appears to the Court that the proposal cannot continue without injustice or undue delay or that the approval of the Court was obtained by fraud, the Court may, on application with such notice as the Court may direct to the debtor, and if applicable to the trustee and to the creditors, annul the proposal.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be made without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition of property or payment duly made, or anything done under or in pursuance of the proposal, and notwithstanding the annulment of the proposal, a guarantee given pursuant to the proposal remains in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

48. Agreements not to be terminated or altered

54. Stay of proceedings upon filing of notice of intention or proposal

(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4) and section 56, on the filing of a notice of intention under section 29(1) in respect of an insolvent person—

- (a) no creditor has any remedy against the insolvent person or the insolvent person’s property, or shall commence or continue any action, execution or other proceedings, for the recovery of a claim provable in bankruptcy, until the trustee has been discharged or the insolvent person becomes bankrupt; and
- (b) no provision of a security agreement between the insolvent person and a secured creditor that provides, in substance, that on—
 - (i) the insolvent person’s insolvency,
 - (ii) the default by the insolvent person of an obligation under the security agreement, or
 - (iii) the filing by the insolvent person of a notice of intention under section 29(1) in respect of the insolvent person, the insolvent person ceases to have such rights to use or deal with assets secured under the agreement as the insolvent person would otherwise have, has any force or effect until the trustee has been discharged or the insolvent person becomes bankrupt.

(2) The stays provided by subsection (1) do not apply—

- (a) to prevent a secured creditor who took possession of secured assets of the insolvent person for the purpose of realisation before the notice of intention under section 29 was filed from dealing with those assets;
- (b) unless the secured creditor otherwise agrees, to prevent a secured creditor who gave notice of intention under section 12(1) to enforce that creditor's security against the insolvent person more than ten days before—
 - (i) a notice of intention was filed in respect of the insolvent person under section 29, or
 - (ii) the proposal was filed, if no notice of intention under section 29 was filed, from enforcing that security; or

(4) Subject to sections 19, 68 and 117 to 124, where secured creditors holding a particular class of secured claim vote for the refusal of a proposal, a secured creditor holding a secured claim of that class may henceforth realise or otherwise deal with his security in the same manner as he would have been entitled to realise or deal with it if this section had not been passed.

(2) Subject to sections 19, 68 and 117 to 124, the bankruptcy of a debtor does not prevent a secured creditor from realising or otherwise dealing with his security in the same manner as he would have been entitled to realise or deal with it if this section had not been passed, unless the Court otherwise orders, but in so ordering the Court shall not postpone the right of the secured creditor to realise or otherwise deal with his security, except as follows—

- (a) in the case of a security for a debt that is due at the date the bankrupt became bankrupt or that becomes due not later than six months thereafter, that right shall not be postponed for more than six months from that date; and

- (b) in the case of a security for a debt that does not become due until more than six months after the date the bankrupt became bankrupt, that right shall not be postponed for more than six months from that date, unless all instalments of interest that are more than six months in arrears are paid and all other defaults of more than six months standing are cured, and then only so long as no instalment of interest remains in arrears or defaults remain uncured for more than six months, but, in any event, not beyond the date at which the debt secured by the security becomes payable under the instrument or law creating the security.

56. Aggrieved creditor may apply to Court for removal of stay

A creditor who is affected by the operation of section 54 or 55 may apply to the Court for a declaration that those sections no longer operate in respect of that creditor, and the Court may make such a declaration, subject to any qualifications that the Court considers proper, if it is satisfied—

- (a) that the creditor or person is likely to be materially prejudiced by the continued operation of those sections; or
- (b) that it is equitable on other grounds to make such a declaration.

57. Stay ineffectual against certain parties and claims

(1) Sections 54 and 55 do not apply in respect of a claim referred to in section 111(4).

- (b) amounts that are payable to the estate of the bankrupt under section 52.

General Provisions

58. Precedence of bankruptcy over certain creditors unless process completed

(1) Every receiving order and every assignment made in pursuance of this Act takes precedence over all judicial and other attachments, garnishments, certificates of judgment, judgements operating as executions or other process against the property of the bankrupt, except those that have been completely executed by payment to the creditor or his agent, and except the rights of a secured creditor.

(2) An execution levied by seizure and sale of the property of a bankrupt is not invalid by reason only of its being an act of bankruptcy, and a person who purchases the property in good faith under a sale by the Registrar acquires a good title against the trustee.

59. Property of bankrupt to vest in trustee

(1) On a receiving order being made or an assignment being filed with the Supervisor, a bankrupt ceases to have any capacity to dispose or otherwise deal with his property, which shall, subject to this Act and to the rights of secured creditors, pass to and vest in the trustee named in the receiving order or assignment; and in any case of change of trustee the property shall pass from trustee to trustee without any conveyance, assignment or transfer.

(2) Subject to section 212(1), the trustee may exercise the right to transfer the property of the bankrupt to the same extent as the bankrupt might have exercised that right if he had not become bankrupt.

60. Trustee to avail himself of other rights

The provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to abrogate or supersede the substantive provisions of any other law or statute that are not in conflict with this Act, and the trustee is entitled to avail himself of all rights and remedies provided by that law or statute as supplementary to and in addition to the rights and remedies provided by this Act.

61. Delivery of seized property to trustee

(1) Where an assignment or a receiving order has been made, the Registrar or other officer of any Court or other person having seized property of the bankrupt under execution or attachment or any other process shall, on receiving a copy of the assignment or the receiving order certified by the trustee as a true copy, forthwith deliver to the trustee all that property.

(2) Where the Registrar has sold the property of a bankrupt or any part of that property, he shall deliver to the trustee the money so realised.

(3) Any property of a bankrupt under seizure for rent or taxes shall on production of a copy of the receiving order or the assignment certified by the trustee as a true copy be delivered forthwith to the trustee, but the costs of distress are a first charge on the property, and, if the property or any part thereof has been sold, the money realised from the sale less the costs of distress and sale shall be paid to the trustee.

62. Trustee may surrender lease or deal with lease-hold interests

(1) Where the bankrupt is a lessee of premises, the trustee, notwithstanding a condition, covenant or agreement in the lease, has the right to hold and retain the leased premises until the expiration of the tenancy on the same terms and conditions as the lessee might have held the premises had no bankruptcy occurred.

(2) The tenancy of the leased premises shall terminate upon the trustee disclaiming the lease, but nothing shall prevent the trustee from transferring or disposing of a lease, leasehold property, or any interest of the lessee for the unexpired term to as full an extent as could have been done by the lessee had the bankruptcy not occurred.

(3) If the lease contains a covenant, condition or agreement that the lessee may not assign or sublet the premises without the leave or consent of the landlord or other person, the covenant, condition or agreement shall be of no effect in case of such a transfer or disposition of the lease or leasehold property if the Court, on the application of the trustee and after notice of the application to the landlord, approves the transfer or disposition proposed to be made of the lease or leasehold property.

(4) The entry of the trustee into possession of the leased premises and the occupation of the premises by the trustee, while required for the purposes of the administration by the trustee, shall not be evidence of an intention on the part of the trustee to elect to retain the premises, nor affect the trustee's right to disclaim the lease.

(5) If the trustee elects to retain the benefits of the lease and after assigns the lease to a person approved by the Court, the liability of the trustee and of the estate of the debtor is, subject to the provisions of subsection (6), limited to the payment of rent for the period of time during which the trustee remains in possession of the leased premises.

(6) The landlord has a preferred claim for any costs of distress and arrears of rent not exceeding three months' rent accrued and due prior to the date of bankruptcy and not exceeding the realisation by the trustee from the property on the premises under lease.

(7) The landlord may prove as a general creditor for all rent accrued and due at the date of bankruptcy plus any accelerated rent, not exceeding three months', that may be claimed under the lease, less the amount in subsection (6).

(8) Except as referred to in subsection (7), the landlord is not entitled to prove as a creditor for rent for any portion of the unexpired term of the lease, but the trustee shall pay to the landlord for the period during which the trustee actually occupies and uses the premises from and after the date of bankruptcy a rental calculated on the basis of the lease and payable in accordance with its terms, but any payment already made to the landlord as rent in advance in respect of that period, and any payment to be made to the landlord in respect of accelerated rent, shall be credited against the amount payable by the trustee for that period.

(9) Nothing in this section shall render the trustee personally liable beyond the assets of the debtor in possession of the trustee.

63. Receiving order and assignment may be registered

(1) Every true copy of a receiving order certified by the Registrar or other officer of the Court that made it, and every true copy of an assignment certified by the Supervisor, may be registered by or on behalf of the trustee in respect of the whole or any part of real property that the bankrupt owns or in which he has any interest or estate in the appropriate registry in accordance with laws regarding same.

(2) Where the bankrupt is the registered owner of any land or charge, the trustee, on registration of the documents referred to in subsection (1), is entitled to be registered as owner of the land or charge free of all encumbrances or charges mentioned in section 58(1).

(3) Where a bankrupt owns any land or charge registered under any Act, or has or is believed to have any interest or estate in that land or charge, and for any reason a copy of the receiving order or assignment has not been registered under subsection (1), a caveat or caution may be lodged with the official in charge of the appropriate registry by the trustee, and any registration thereafter made in respect of the land or charge is subject to the caveat or caution unless it has been removed or cancelled under the provisions of the relevant statute.

(4) The person to whom a trustee tenders or causes to be tendered for registration any receiving order, assignment or other document shall register it according to the ordinary procedure for registering documents relating to real property.

(5) In the conveyance of real estate purchased from the trustee it shall not be necessary to join as parties with the trustee persons in whom the legal estate in any mortgage in fee or the legal interest in any mortgage term of years or any other legal or equitable lien or security is vested, but such conveyance when executed by the trustee shall be effectual to vest in the purchaser the real estate purported to be conveyed as if the person having any lien or security, whether the same come within the purchase money or not, had been made parties to and had executed the said conveyance and had thereby granted, transferred, surrendered or released the same.

(6) Every deed, conveyance, assignment, surrender or other assurance relating solely to freehold or leasehold property or to any mortgage, charge, or other encumbrance on, or any estate, right, or interest in, any real or personal property which is part of the estate of the bankrupt and which after the execution of the deed, conveyance, assignment, surrender or other assurance, either at law or in equity, is or remains the estate of the bankrupt or the trustee, and every power of attorney, proxy paper, writ, order, certificate, affidavit, bond or other instrument or writing relating solely to the property of the bankrupt or to any proceeding under the bankruptcy shall be exempt from stamp duty and property transfer tax.

64. Effect of bankruptcy on property in certain cases

(1) Where any interest of the bankrupt in any property at the date of bankruptcy was held in joint tenancy, the bankruptcy shall operate as a severance of the joint tenancy and a reversion to tenancy in common.

(2) Where a debtor who is married is at the date of bankruptcy, the sole registered owner of the matrimonial home and any immediately related real property not exceeding one acre, the spouse of the debtor shall be entitled, within ten days following the bankruptcy, to claim in the prescribed form a one-half interest in any net proceeds from a sale or disposition by the trustee of the property after satisfaction of any valid and enforceable charges registered in the appropriate registry.

65. Transactions valid unless prior registration

Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a deed, conveyance, transfer, agreement for sale, mortgage, or charge made to or in favour of a bona fide purchaser or mortgagee for adequate valuable consideration and covering any real property affected by a receiving order or an assignment under this Act is valid and effectual according to the tenor thereof as fully and effectually and to all intents and purposes as if no receiving order or assignment had been made under this Act, unless the receiving order or assignment, or notice, or caution, has been registered against the property in the appropriate registry prior to the registration of the deed, conveyance, transfer, agreement for sale, mortgage, or charge in accordance with the laws pertaining.

66. Where contributory indebted to bankrupt

(1) Every shareholder or member of a bankrupt corporation is liable to contribute the amount unpaid on his shares of the capital or on his liability to the corporation, its members or creditors, as the case may be, under the Act, charter, or instrument of incorporation of the company or otherwise.

(2) The amount that the contributory is liable to contribute under subsection (1) shall be deemed an asset of the corporation and a debt payable to the trustee forthwith on the bankruptcy of the corporation.

67. Banker to advise trustee of existence of account

(1) Where a banker has ascertained that a person having an account with the banker is an undischarged bankrupt, it is his duty to inform the trustee of the existence of the account, and the banker shall not make any payments out of the account, except under an order of the Court or in accordance with instructions from the trustee, unless on the expiration of one month from the date of giving the information no instructions have been received from the trustee.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, a deposit taking institution shall on application of the trustee disclose what deposits of money, if any, of the bankrupt are remaining to the bankrupt's credit, and the deposit taking institution shall, upon request of the trustee, pay the same to the trustee.

68. Trustee may inspect property

Where property of a bankrupt is held as a pledge, pawn or other security, the trustee may give notice in writing of the trustee's intention to inspect the property, and the person so notified is not thereafter entitled to realise the security until the person has given the trustee a reasonable opportunity of inspecting the property and of exercising the right of redemption of the trustee.

69. Where trustee disposes property subject to an encumbrance

Where the trustee has seized or disposed of property in the possession or on the premises of a bankrupt without notice of any claim in respect of the property and it is made to appear that the property was not at the date of the bankruptcy the property of the bankrupt or was subject to an unregistered lien, a right of retention, a pledge or a charge, the trustee is not personally liable for any loss or damage arising from the seizure or disposal sustained by any person claiming the property or an interest in the property or for the costs of proceedings taken to establish a claim to the property, unless the Court is of the opinion that the trustee has been guilty of negligence with respect to the duties of the trustee in relation to the property.

70. Persons claiming ownership interest in property of the bankrupt

(1) Where a person claims any property, or interest in property, in the possession of a bankrupt at the time of the bankruptcy, that person shall file with the trustee a proof of claim verified by affidavit giving the grounds on which the claim is based and sufficient particulars to enable the property to be identified.

(2) The trustee with whom a proof of claim is filed under subsection (1) shall within fifteen days after the filing of the claim or within fifteen days after the first meeting of creditors, whichever is the later, either admit the claim and deliver possession of the property to the claimant or give notice in writing to the claimant that the claim is disputed with his reasons, and, unless the claimant appeals to the Court within fifteen days after the service of the notice of dispute, the claimant shall be deemed to have abandoned or relinquished all his right to or interest in the property to the trustee, who may sell or dispose of the property free of any lien, right, title or interest of the claimant.

(3) The onus of establishing a claim to or interest in property under this section is on the claimant.

(4) The trustee may give notice in writing to any person to prove his claim to or interest in property under this section, and, unless that person files with the trustee a proof of claim in the prescribed form within fifteen days after the service of the notice, the trustee may with the leave of the Court sell or dispose of the property free of any lien, right, title or interest of that person.

(5) No proceedings shall be instituted to establish a claim to, or to recover any right or interest in, any property in the possession of a bankrupt at the time of the bankruptcy, except as provided in this section.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed as extending the rights of any person other than the trustee.

71. Unpaid suppliers may prove for certain goods

(1) Subject to this section, where a person, in this section referred to as the “supplier”, has sold and delivered goods to another person, in this section referred to as the “purchaser”, for use in relation to the business of the purchaser, and the purchaser has not fully paid for the goods, the supplier may have access to and repossess the goods at the expense of the supplier, and the purchaser, trustee or receiver shall release the goods, if—

- (a) the supplier presents a written demand for repossession to the purchaser, trustee or receiver, in prescribed form and containing the details of the transaction, within a period of thirty days after the delivery of the goods to the purchaser;
- (b) at the time when the demand referred to in paragraph (a) is presented—
 - (i) the purchaser is bankrupt, or
 - (ii) there is a receiver in relation to the purchaser;
- (c) at the time when the demand referred to in paragraph (a) is presented, the goods—
 - (i) are in the possession of the purchaser, trustee or receiver,
 - (ii) are identifiable as the goods delivered by the supplier and are not fully paid for,
 - (iii) are in the same state as they were on delivery,
 - (iv) have not been resold at arm’s length, and
 - (v) are not subject to any agreement for sale at arm’s length; and
- (d) the purchaser, trustee or receiver does not, after the demand referred to in paragraph (a) is presented, pay to the supplier the entire balance owing.

(2) Where, at the time when the demand referred to in paragraph (a) is presented, the goods have been partly paid for, the right of the supplier to repossess under subsection (1) shall be read as a right—

- (a) to repossess a portion of the goods proportional to the unpaid amount; or

(b) to repossess all of the goods on paying to the purchaser, trustee or receiver an amount equal to the partial payment previously made to the supplier.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(i), section 46 shall be disregarded and sections 37(a) and 42(2)(a) shall both be deemed to read as follows—

“(a) the insolvent person shall at the time of the refusal be deemed to have made an assignment.”

(4) Where a notice of intention under section 29 or a proposal was filed in respect of the purchaser after the delivery of the goods to the purchaser and before there was a receiver in relation to the purchaser or the purchaser became bankrupt, the period between—

(a) the earlier of the filing of the notice of intention or proposal; and

(b) the earlier of the first day there was a receiver in relation to the purchaser or the day the purchaser became bankrupt, shall not be counted in determining the end of the thirty day period referred to in subsection (1)(a).

(5) A supplier's right to repossess goods pursuant to this section expires if not exercised within ten days after the purchaser, trustee or receiver serves the supplier with a written notice admitting that right, unless the ten day period is extended by mutual agreement.

(6) Notwithstanding any other Act or law, the right of the supplier to repossess goods pursuant to this section ranks above every other claim or right against the purchaser in respect of those goods, other than the right of a bona fide subsequent purchaser of the goods for value without notice that the supplier had demanded repossession of the goods.

(7) The purchaser, trustee or receiver may apply to the Court for directions in relation to any matter relating to this section, and the Court shall give, in writing, such directions, if any, as it considers proper in the circumstances.

(8) Where a supplier is aggrieved by any act, omission or decision of the purchaser, trustee or receiver, the supplier may apply to the Court and the Court may make such order as it considers proper in the circumstances.

(9) Nothing in subsection (7) or (8) precludes a person from exercising any right that the person may have under section 216(1) or section 219.

(10) A supplier who repossesses goods pursuant to this section is not entitled to be paid for those goods.

72. Claim of farmer or fisherman

(1) Where—

(a) a farmer has sold and delivered products of agriculture, or a fisherman has sold and delivered products of the sea, to another person, in this section referred to as the “purchaser”, for use in relation to the business of the purchaser;

- (b) the products were delivered to the purchaser within the fifteen day period preceding—
 - (i) the day on which the purchaser became bankrupt, or
 - (ii) the first day on which there was a receiver in relation to the purchaser;
- (c) as of the day referred to in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii), the farmer or fisherman has not been fully paid for the products; and
- (d) the farmer or fisherman files a proof of claim in the prescribed form in respect of the unpaid amount with the trustee or receiver, as the case may be, within thirty days after the day referred to in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii), the claim of the farmer or fisherman for the unpaid amount in respect of the products is secured by a charge on all the inventory of or held by the purchaser as of the day referred to in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii).

(2) The charge ranks above every other claim, right or charge against that inventory, regardless of when that other claim, right or charge arose, except a supplier's right to repossess goods pursuant to section 71, notwithstanding any other Act or law.

(3) Where the trustee or receiver, as the case may be, takes possession of or in any way disposes of an inventory covered by the charge referred to in subsection (1), the trustee or receiver is liable for the claim of the farmer or fisherman to the extent of the net amount realised on the disposition of that inventory, after deducting the cost of realisation, and is subrogated in and to all rights of the farmer or fisherman to the extent of the amounts paid to them by the trustee or receiver.

comprise that thing in any form or state and any part thereof and any product or by-product thereof or derived therefrom.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, “goods” in section 71 includes products of agriculture and products of the sea.

(7) Nothing in this section precludes a farmer or fisherman from exercising the right that that person may have under section 71 to repossess products of agriculture or products of the sea.

73. Sale of patented articles by trustee

(1) Where any property of a bankrupt vesting in a trustee consists of patented articles that were sold to the bankrupt subject to any restrictions or limitations, the trustee is not bound by the restrictions or limitations but may sell and dispose of the patented articles free of the restrictions or limitations.

(2) Where the manufacturer or vendor of the patented articles referred to in subsection (1) objects to the disposition of them by the trustee as provided by this section and gives the trustee notice in writing of the objection before the sale or disposition of the patented articles, that manufacturer or vendor has the right to purchase the patented articles at the invoice prices of those articles, subject to any reasonable deduction for depreciation or deterioration.

- (c) the trustee at the expiration of six months from the date of the bankruptcy decides not to carry out the contract, revert without expense to the author, and any contract or agreement between the author or his heirs and the bankrupt shall then terminate and be void.

(2) Where, at the time of the bankruptcy referred to in subsection (1), the work was published and put on the market, the trustee is entitled to sell, or authorise the sale or reproduction of, any copies of the published work, or to perform or authorise the performance of the work, but—

- (a) there shall be paid to the author or his heirs such sums by way of royalties or share of the profits as would have been payable by the bankrupt;
- (b) the trustee is not, without the written consent of the author or his heirs, entitled to assign the copyright or transfer the interest or to grant any interest in the copyright by licence or otherwise, except on terms that will guarantee to the author or his heirs payment by way of royalties or share of the profits at a rate not less than the rate the bankrupt was liable to pay; and
- (c) any contract or agreement between the author or his heirs and the bankrupt shall then terminate and be void, except with respect to the disposal, under this subsection, of copies of the work published and put on the market before the bankruptcy.

(3) This section does not extend to any settlement made—

- (a) before and in consideration of marriage;
- (b) in favour of a purchaser or incumbrancer in good faith and for valuable consideration; or

(2) Where any conveyance, transfer, charge, payment, obligation, or judicial proceeding mentioned in subsection (1) has the effect of giving any creditor a preference over other creditors, or over any one or more of them, it shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to have been made, incurred, taken, paid or suffered with a view to giving the creditor a preference over other creditors, whether or not it was made voluntarily or under pressure; and evidence of pressure shall not be admissible to support the transaction.

(1) Where a person has acquired property of a bankrupt under a transaction that is void or under a voidable transaction that is set aside and has sold, disposed of, realised or collected the property or any part thereof, the money or other proceeds, whether further disposed of or not, shall be deemed the property of the trustee.

(2) The trustee may recover the property or the value of the property or the money or proceeds from the property from the person who acquired it from the bankrupt or from any other person to whom he may have resold, transferred or paid over the proceeds of the property as fully and effectually as the trustee could have recovered the property if it had not been so sold, disposed of, realised or collected.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where any person to whom the property has been sold or disposed of has paid or given in good faith adequate valuable consideration for the property, that person is not subject to the operation of this section but the trustee’s recourse shall be solely against the person entering into the transaction with the bankrupt for recovery of the consideration so paid or given or the value of the property.

(4) Where the consideration payable for or on any sale or resale of the property or any part of the property remains unsatisfied, the trustee is subrogated to the rights of the vendor to compel payment or satisfaction.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the receipt of any money, security or negotiable instrument from or by the order or direction of a bankrupt by his banker and any payment and any delivery of any security or negotiable instrument made to or by the order or direction of a bankrupt by his banker shall be deemed to be a transaction by the bankrupt with his banker dealing with him for value.

88. Reviewable transactions in year prior to initial bankruptcy event

(1) Where a bankrupt sold, purchased, leased, hired, supplied or received property or services in a reviewable transaction within the period beginning on the day that is one year before the date of the initial bankruptcy event and ending on the date of the bankruptcy, the Court may, on the application of the trustee, inquire into whether the bankrupt gave or received, as the case may be, fair market value in consideration for the property or services concerned in the transaction.

(2) Where the Court in proceedings under this section finds that the consideration given or received by the bankrupt in the reviewable transaction was conspicuously greater or less than the fair market value of the property or services concerned in the transaction, the Court may give judgement to the trustee against the other party to the transaction, against any other person being privy to the transaction with the bankrupt or against all those persons for the difference between the actual consideration given or received by the bankrupt and the fair market value, as determined by the Court, of the property or services concerned in the transaction.

(3) In making an application under this section, the trustee shall state what in his opinion was the fair market value of the property or services concerned in the transaction and what in his opinion was the value of the actual consideration given or received by the bankrupt in the transaction, and the values on which the Court makes any finding pursuant to this section shall be the values so stated by the trustee unless other values are proven.

89. Where dividend paid by company

(1) Where a corporation that is bankrupt has paid a dividend, other than a stock dividend, or redeemed or purchased for cancellation any of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation within the period beginning on the day that is one year before the date of the initial bankruptcy event and ending on the date of the bankruptcy, the Court may, on the application of the trustee, inquire into the transaction to ascertain whether it occurred at a time when the corporation was insolvent or whether it rendered the corporation insolvent.

(2) Where a transaction referred to in subsection (1) has occurred, the Court may give judgement to the trustee against the directors of the corporation, jointly and severally, in the amount of the dividend or redemption or purchase price, with interest on the dividend, redemption or purchase price, that has not been paid to the corporation where the Court finds that—

- (a) the transaction occurred at a time when the corporation was insolvent or the transaction rendered the corporation insolvent; and
- (b) the directors did not have reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction was occurring at a time when the corporation was not solvent or the transaction would not render the corporation insolvent.

(3) In making a determination under paragraph (2)(b), the Court shall consider whether the directors acted as prudent and diligent persons would have acted in the same circumstances and whether the directors in good faith relied on—

- (a) financial or other statements of the corporation represented to them by officers of the corporation or the auditor of the corporation, as the case may be, or by written reports of the auditor to fairly reflect the financial condition of the corporation; or
- (b) a report relating to the corporation's affairs prepared pursuant to a contract with the corporation by an attorney-at-law, notary, accountant, engineer, appraiser or other person whose profession gave credibility to the statements made in the report.

(4) Where a transaction referred to in subsection (1) has occurred and the Court makes a finding referred to in subsection (2)(a), the Court may give judgement to the trustee against a shareholder who is related to one or more directors or to the corporation or who is a director not liable by reason of subsection (2)(b) or subsection (5), in the amount of the dividend or redemption or purchase price referred to in subsection (1) and the interest on the dividend, redemption or purchase price, that was received by the shareholder and not repaid to the corporation.

(5) A judgement pursuant to subsection (2) shall not be entered against or be binding on a director who had, in accordance with any applicable law governing the operation of the corporation, protested against the payment of the dividend or the redemption or purchase for cancellation of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation and had thereby exonerated himself under that law from any liability.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any right, under any applicable law governing the operation of the corporation, of the directors to recover from a shareholder the whole or any part of any dividend, or any redemption or purchase price, made or paid to the shareholder when the corporation was insolvent or that rendered the corporation insolvent.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (2), the onus of proving—

- (a) that the corporation was not insolvent at the time the transaction occurred and that the transaction did not render the corporation insolvent; or
- (b) that the directors had reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction was occurring at a time when the corporation was not insolvent or that the transaction would not render the corporation insolvent lies on the directors.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (4), the onus of proving that the corporation was not insolvent at the time the transaction occurred and that the transaction did not render the corporation insolvent lies on the shareholder.

and the report shall be accompanied by a resolution of the inspectors declaring whether or not they approve or disapprove of the report, and in the latter case, the reasons of the disapproval shall be given.

(2) Where an application of a bankrupt for a discharge is pending, the trustee shall file the report prepared under subsection (1) in the Court not less than two days, and forward a copy to the Supervisor, to the bankrupt and to each creditor who requested a copy not less than ten days, before the day appointed for hearing the application, and in all other cases the trustee, before proceeding to the discharge, shall file the report in the Court and forward a copy to the Supervisor.

(3) The Supervisor may make such further or other report to the Court as he deems expedient or as in his opinion ought to be before the Court on the application referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The trustee or any creditor may attend the Court and be heard in person or by counsel.

(5) For the purposes of the application referred to in subsection (2), the report of the trustee is evidence of the statements contained in the report.

(6) Where a bankrupt intends to dispute any statement contained in the trustee's report prepared under subsection (1), the bankrupt shall at or before the time appointed for hearing the application for discharge, give notice in writing to the trustee specifying the statements in the report that he proposes at the hearing to dispute.

(7) A creditor who intends to oppose the discharge of a bankrupt on grounds other than those mentioned in the trustee's report shall give notice of the intended opposition, stating the grounds of the opposition to the trustee and to the bankrupt at or before the time appointed for the hearing of the application for discharge.

162. Trustee's report to provide recommendation

(1) The report prepared under section 161(1) shall include a recommendation as to whether or not the bankrupt should be discharged subject to conditions, having regard to the bankrupt's conduct and ability to make payments.

(2) The trustee shall consider the following matters in making a recommendation under subsection (1)—

- (a) whether the bankrupt has complied with a requirement imposed on the bankrupt under section 52;
- (b) the total amount paid to the estate by the bankrupt, having regard to the bankrupt's indebtedness and financial resources; and
- (c) whether the bankrupt, where the bankrupt could have made a viable proposal, chose to proceed to bankruptcy rather than to make a proposal as the means to resolve the indebtedness.

(3) A recommendation that the bankrupt be discharged subject to conditions is deemed to be an opposition to the discharge of the bankrupt.

(4) Where the bankrupt does not agree with the recommendation of the trustee, the bankrupt may, before the expiration of the ninth month after the date of the bankruptcy, send the trustee a request in writing to have the matter determined by mediation.

(5) Where a request for mediation has been made under subsection (4) or the discharge of the bankrupt is opposed by a creditor or the trustee in whole or in part on a ground referred to in section 164(m) or (n), the trustee shall send an application for mediation in the prescribed form to the Supervisor within five days after the expiration of the nine month period referred to in subsection (4) or within such further time as the Supervisor may allow.

(6) A mediation shall be in accordance with prescribed procedures.

(7) Where the issues submitted to mediation are not resolved by mediation or the bankrupt has failed to comply with conditions that were established by the trustee or as a result of mediation, the trustee shall forthwith apply to the Court for an appointment for the hearing of the matter, which hearing shall be held—

- (a) within thirty days after the day the appointment is made; or
- (b) at such later time as may be fixed by the Court; and the provisions of this Part in respect of applications to the Court under this subsection in relation to the discharge of a bankrupt apply, with such modifications as the circumstances require.

(8) Where the bankrupt complies with the conditions imposed on the bankrupt by the trustee in relation to the discharge of the bankrupt or as a result of mediation referred to in this section, the trustee shall—

- (a) issue to the bankrupt a certificate of discharge in the prescribed form releasing the bankrupt from all debts other than a debt referred to in section 169(1); and

(1) On the hearing of an application of a bankrupt for a discharge, the Court may put such questions to the debtor and receive such evidence as it thinks fit.

(2) On the hearing of an application of a bankrupt for a discharge, the Court may either grant or refuse an absolute order of discharge or suspend the operation of the order for a specified time, or grant an order of discharge subject to any terms or conditions with respect to any earnings or income that may afterwards become due to the bankrupt or with respect to his after-acquired property.

(3) The Court shall on proof of any of the facts mentioned in section 164—

- (a) refuse the discharge of a bankrupt;
- (b) suspend the discharge for such period as the Court thinks proper; or
- (c) require the bankrupt, as a condition of his discharge, to perform such acts, pay such monies, consent to such judgements, or comply with such other terms, as the Court may direct.

(4) Where at any time after the expiration of one year after the date of any order made under this section the bankrupt satisfies the Court that there is no reasonable probability of his being in a position to comply with the terms of the order, the Court may modify the terms of the order or of any substituted order, in such manner and on such conditions as it may think fit.

(5) The powers of suspending and of attaching conditions to the discharge of a bankrupt may be exercised concurrently.

164. Facts relevant to discharge

The facts referred to in section 163(3) are—

- (a) the assets of the bankrupt are not of a value equal to thirty-three and one-third cents on the dollar on the amount of the bankrupt's unsecured liabilities, unless the bankrupt satisfies the Court that the fact the assets are not of that value has arisen from circumstances for which the bankrupt cannot justly be held responsible;
- (b) the bankrupt has omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by the bankrupt and as sufficiently disclose the business transactions and financial position of the bankrupt within the three years before the date of the initial bankruptcy event;

- (d) the bankrupt has failed to account satisfactorily for any loss of assets or for any deficiency of assets to meet the bankrupt's liabilities;

- (f) the bankrupt has put any of the bankrupt's creditors to unnecessary expense by a frivolous or vexatious defence to any action properly brought against the bankrupt;
- (g) the bankrupt has, within the period beginning on the day that is three months before the date of the initial bankruptcy event and ending on the date of the bankruptcy, incurred unjustifiable expense by bringing a frivolous or vexatious action;
- (h) the bankrupt has, within the period beginning on the day that is three months before the date of the initial bankruptcy event and ending on the date of the bankruptcy, when unable to pay debts as they became due, given an undue preference to any of the bankrupt's creditors;
- (i) the bankrupt has, within the period beginning on the day that is three months before the date of the initial bankruptcy event and ending on the date of the bankruptcy, incurred liabilities in order to make the bankrupt's assets equal to thirty-three and one-third cents on the dollar on the amount of the bankrupt's unsecured liabilities;
- (j) the bankrupt has on any previous occasion been bankrupt or made a proposal to creditors;
- (k) the bankrupt has been guilty of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust;

165. Value of bankrupt's assets

For purposes of section 164, the assets of a bankrupt shall be deemed of a value equal to thirty-three and one-third cents on the dollar on the amount of his unsecured liabilities when the Court is satisfied that the property of the bankrupt has realised, is likely to realise or, with due care in realisation, might have realised an amount equal to thirty-three and one-third cents on the dollar on his unsecured liabilities.

166. Cessation of any statutory disqualification

(1) A statutory disqualification on account of bankruptcy ceases when the bankrupt is discharged and obtains from the Court a certificate to the effect that the bankruptcy was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part.

(2) The Court may, if it thinks fit, grant a certificate mentioned in subsection (1), and a refusal to grant such a certificate is subject to appeal.

167. Bankrupt to report to trustee and Court

(1) Where an order is granted on terms or conditions or on the bankrupt consenting to judgement, the bankrupt shall, until the terms or conditions are met or the judgement is satisfied—

- (b) not less than once each year file in the Court and with the trustee a statement verified under oath showing the particulars of any property or income he may have acquired subsequent to the order for his discharge, and the trustee or any creditor may require the bankrupt to attend for examination under oath with respect to the facts contained in the statement or with respect to his earnings, income, after-acquired property or dealings.

(2) Where the bankrupt fails to give information or to file a statement as required by subsection (1), to attend for examination when required to do so or to answer all questions fully and accurately with respect to his earnings, income, after-acquired property or dealings, the Court may on the application of the trustee or of any creditor revoke the order of discharge.

(3) Where a conditional order of discharge of a bankrupt is made providing for payment of a further dividend or sum of money by the bankrupt, all payments on account in respect of the dividend or sum of money shall be made to the trustee for distribution to the creditors.

168. Court may consider effects of settlement before marriage

Where—

- (a) a settlement is made before and in consideration of marriage and the settlor is not at the time of making the settlement to pay all his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement; or
- (b) any covenant or contract is made in consideration of marriage for the future settlement on or for the settlor's spouse or children of any property the settlor had not at the date of marriage any estate or interest, not being property of or in right of his or her spouse, if the settlor becomes bankrupt and it appears to the Court that the settlement, covenant or contract was made in order to defeat or delay his creditors, or was unjustifiable having regard to the state of the settlor's affairs at the time when it was made, the Court may refuse or suspend an order of discharge or grant an order subject to conditions in like manner as in cases where the bankrupt has been guilty of fraud.

169. Debts not released by order of discharge

(1) An order of discharge does not release the bankrupt from—

- (a) any fine, penalty, restitution order or other order similar in nature to a fine, penalty or restitution order imposed by a court in respect of an offence, or any debt arising out of a recognisance or bail;

(2) Subject to subsection (1), an order of discharge releases the bankrupt from all claims provable in bankruptcy.

170. Third parties not released

(2) Where it appears to the Court that the discharge of a bankrupt was obtained by fraud, the Court may, on application, annul his discharge.

(3) An order revoking or annulling the discharge of a bankrupt does not prejudice the validity of a sale, disposition of property, payment made or thing duly done before the revocation or annulment of the discharge.

172. Court may annul bankruptcy

(1) Where in the opinion of the Court a receiving order ought not to have been made or an assignment ought not to have been filed, the Court may by order annul the bankruptcy.

(2) Where an order is made under subsection (1), all sales, dispositions of property, payments duly made and acts done theretofore by the trustee or other person acting under his authority, or by the Court, are valid, but the property of the bankrupt shall vest in such person as the Court may appoint or, in default of that appointment, without any conveyance or assignment whatever revert to and revest in the debtor for all his estate and interest in the property upon such terms and subject to such conditions, if any, as the Court may order.

173. Issuance of orders to be delayed

An order of discharge or annulment shall be dated on the day on which it is made, but it shall not be issued or delivered until the expiration of the time allowed for an appeal, and, if an appeal is entered, not until the appeal has been finally disposed of.

PART IX

Supervisor

174. Appointment of Supervisor

(1) For the purposes of this Act, there shall be a Supervisor of Insolvency, who shall be an attorney-at-law with no less than five years experience of practising law and with knowledge or experience in the field of accounting who shall be responsible to the Minister for the general administration of this Act and whose office shall be a public office.

(2) The Supervisor, or anyone duly authorised in writing by or on behalf of the Supervisor, may, with the leave of the Court granted on an ex parte application, examine the books, records and deposit accounts of a trustee or any other person designated in the order granting that leave for the purpose of tracing or discovering the property or funds of an estate when there are reasonable grounds to believe or suspect that the property or funds of an estate have not been properly disclosed or dealt with and for that purpose may under a warrant from the Court enter on and search any premises.

(3) Where the Supervisor, on ex parte application, satisfies the Court that it is necessary and in the public interest to do so, the Court may issue an order directing a deposit-taking institution that holds a deposit account of a trustee or such other person as is designated in the order not to make payments out of the account until such time as the Court otherwise directs.

176. Suspected offences

(1) Where, on information supplied by a trustee or other person, the Supervisor suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has, in connection with any estate or matter to which this Act applies, committed an offence under this Act or any other Act, the Supervisor may, if it appears to the Supervisor that the alleged offence might not otherwise be investigated, make or cause to be made such enquiries or investigations as the Supervisor deems expedient with respect to—

(6) Where any book or record is examined or produced in accordance with this section, the person by whom it is examined or to whom it is produced or the Supervisor may make or cause to be made one or more copies thereof, and a document purporting to be certified by the Supervisor or a person authorised by the Supervisor to be a copy made pursuant to this section is admissible in evidence and has the same probative force as the original document would have if it were proven in the ordinary way.

(7) Notwithstanding section 126, a recovery made as the result of any inquiries or investigation made or caused to be made pursuant to this section shall be applied to the reimbursement of any costs and expenses incurred by the Supervisor on the recovery, not being ordinary costs or expenses of the office of the Supervisor, and the balance remaining in respect of the recovery shall be made available for the benefit of the creditors of the debtor.

Public Records

(1) A person who wishes to obtain a licence to act as a trustee shall file with the Supervisor an application for a licence in the prescribed form.

A licence shall be in the prescribed form and shall be subject to such conditions and limitations as are specified by the Supervisor in the licence.

180. Payment of fees

(1) Prior to the issue of a licence, the applicant shall pay such fees as may be prescribed.

- (b) the trustee becoming bankrupt, the Supervisor may, on written representations made by the trustee, reinstate the licence subject to such conditions and limitations as the Supervisor considers appropriate and may specify in that licence.

182. Independent legal opinion

(1) A trustee shall, not while acting as the trustee of an estate, act for or assist a secured creditor of the estate to assert any claim against the estate or to realise or otherwise deal with the security that the secured creditor holds, unless the trustee has obtained a written opinion of an attorney who does not act for the secured creditor that the security is valid and enforceable as against the estate.

the Supervisor may do one or more of the following—

(4) The record and the hearing referred to in subsection (3) are public, unless the Supervisor is satisfied that personal or other matters that may be disclosed are of such a nature that the desirability of avoiding public disclosure of those matters, in the interest of a third party or in the public interest, outweighs the desirability of the access by the public to information about those matters.

(5) The decision of the Supervisor after a hearing referred to in subsection (1), together with the reasons given for the hearing, shall be given in writing to the trustee not later than three months after the conclusion of the hearing; and the decision shall be public.

(2) In subsections (3) to (9), a reference to a “trustee” means a trustee in a bankruptcy or proposal and includes an interim receiver or a receiver.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in any law, where a trustee carries on in that position the business of the debtor or continues the employment of the debtor’s employees, the trustee is not by reason of that fact personally liable in respect of any claim against the debtor or related to a requirement imposed on the debtor to pay an amount where the claim arose before or upon the trustee’s appointment.

(4) A claim referred to in subsection (3) shall not rank as costs of administration.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in any law but subject to subsection (5), where an order is made which has the effect of requiring a trustee to remedy any environmental condition or environmental damage affecting property involved in a bankruptcy, proposal or receivership, the trustee is not personally liable for failure to comply with the order, and is not personally liable for any costs that are or would be incurred by any person in carrying out the terms of the order—

- (a) where, within such time as is specified in the order and where no time is specified, within ten days after the order is made, within ten days after the appointment of the trustee, if the order is in effect when the trustee is appointed, or during the period of the stay referred to in paragraph (b), the trustee—

(9) Where the trustee has abandoned or renounced any interest in real property affected by the environmental condition or environmental damage, claims for costs of remedying the condition or damage shall not rank as costs of administration.

(10) Any claim by the Crown against the debtor in a bankruptcy, proposal or receivership for costs of remedying any environmental condition or environmental damage affecting real property of the debtor is secured by a charge on the real property and on any other real property of the debtor that is contiguous thereto and that is related to the activity that caused the environmental condition or environmental damage, and the charge—

215. Order for sale of assets

(1) The Court may make an order providing for the sale of any or all of the assets of the estate of the bankrupt, either by tender, private sale or public auction, setting out the terms and conditions of the sale and directing that the proceeds from the sale shall be used for the purpose of reimbursing the trustee in respect of any costs that may be owing to him or of any monies that he may have advanced for the benefit of the estate.

(2) If no bid is received for the assets of the estate of the bankrupt sufficient to reimburse the trustee, the Court may make an order vesting in the trustee personally all assets of the estate, and on the making of the order the rights to the assets and interests of the creditors and of the bankrupt to the assets shall be determined and ended.

(2) On an order under subsection (1) being made, the trustee shall assign and transfer to the creditor all his right, title and interest in the chose-in-action or subject matter of the proceeding, including any document in support of the chose-in-action or proceeding.

(4) Where, before an order is made under subsection (1), the trustee, with the permission of the inspectors, signifies to the Court his readiness to institute the proceeding for the benefit of the creditors, the order shall fix the time within which he shall do so, and in that case the benefit derived from the proceeding, if instituted within the time so fixed, belongs to the estate.

(4) In the case of two or more trustees acting in succession, the remuneration shall be apportioned between the trustees in accordance with the services rendered by each, and in the absence of agreement between the trustees the Court shall determine the amount payable to each.

(4) When the accounts of a trustee have been approved by the inspectors and taxed by the Court and all objections, applications and appeals have been settled or disposed of and all dividends have been paid, the estate is deemed to have been fully administered.

(7) Nothing in or done under the authority of this section relieves or discharges or shall be deemed to relieve or discharge a trustee from the results of any fraud.

(8) The discharge of a trustee discharges him from all liability—

(a) in respect of any act done or default made by him in the administration of the property of the bankrupt; and

(b) in relation to his conduct as trustee,

but any discharge may be revoked by the Court on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact.

(9) Nothing in subsection (8) shall be construed to prevent an investigation or a proceeding in respect of a trustee under section 186(1).

(10) The discharge of a trustee under this section operates as a release of the security provided pursuant to section 198(1).

(11) Notwithstanding his discharge, the trustee remains the trustee of the estate for the performance of such duties as may be incidental to the full administration of the estate.

(12) The Court, on being satisfied that there are assets that have not been realised or distributed, may, on the application of any interested person, appoint a trustee to complete the administration of the estate of the bankrupt; and the trustee shall be governed by the provisions of this Act in so far as they are applicable.
