

Immigration News Highlights

2022-34, 23 August 2022

The KPMG team regularly monitors recent developments across the globe in the Immigration space and publishes them as Immigration News Highlights. Please find the key developments that occurred over the last week enumerated below. Click here to find all issues of the Immigration News Highlights on the GMS Flash Alert: Immigration page.

Bahamas

Govt to change COVID-19 entry requirements for cruise passengers

The government of Bahamas plans to change the entry protocols for passengers arriving through cruise ships to make it in line with protocols followed for passengers arriving through air. Currently, all passengers arriving through cruise ships must be fully vaccinated. Read more.

Cayman Islands

Cayman Islands Lifts Remaining COVID-Related Travel Restrictions

The Cayman Islands' government will lift the COVID-19 related entry restrictions from 24 August 2022. Thus, all travelers will be able to enter the country without providing any additional health-related documentation and applying for a travel authorization certificate. Read more.

Chile

Chile To Relax Covid Entry Restrictions on September 1

From 1 September 2022, travelers will no longer be required to fill a travel affidavit form or get a mobility pass before entering Chile. However, unvaccinated travelers must take a RT-PCR test within 48 hours of departure to Chile. Read more.

Costa Rica

Costa Rica establishes new entry requirements for foreigners

On 16 August 2022, Costa Rica implemented new rules to allow for more flexibility for foreigners to enter the country. The new rules generally concern travelers coming from Colombia, Nicaragua, and Venezuela. Read more.

Peru

Peru sets up program to expel foreigners 'who misbehave'

Peru announced implementation of a new program which will expel the migrants having an unlawful conduct in the country. Read more.

United States

ICE issues notice of proposed rulemaking, seeks public comment on employment eligibility verification options

The US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) proposed creation of a framework to authorize alternative options for document examination procedures for the employment eligibility verification for the Form I-9. Read more.

China*China eases visa ban in boost to Indian students

On 22 August 2022, China announced that Indian students will be able to apply for visas to resume their studies. The visas were previously suspended due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Read more

China*Entry rules relaxed for more non-resident foreigners coming from mainland China

Travelers coming from China can enter Macao without applying for entry before. The measure covers foreign workers holding a valid Chinese residence permit. Read more

New Zealand*New Zealand to Temporarily Boost Worker Intake, Change Immigration Rules

New Zealand plans to make temporary changes to immigration rules to attract 12,000 foreign workers over the next year under a working holiday scheme. Further, the New Zealand government will extend the working holiday visas by 6 months for holders who are already in New Zealand with visas expiring between 26 August 2022 and 31 May 2023. Read more

Qatar*Qatar, South Korea agree on mutual visa exemption

On 17 August 2022, Qatar and South Korea signed a visa exemption agreement for citizens of the two countries. The agreement will allow passport holders of Qatar and South Korea to enter the other country visa-free for up to 90 days. Read more

Sri Lanka*Notice Regarding Adjustments in Chinese Visa Application Procedures

The Chinese Embassy in Sri Lanka adjusted the scope of accepted visa application and its procedures. The new rules pertain to new requirements, scope of accepted applicants, documents required, and processing times. These rules will apply from 24 August 2022. Read more

Taiwan*Effective from September 1, 3+4 quarantine policy to remain in place for arrivals; one person per room rule to be adopted during four days of self-initiated epidemic prevention

From 1 September 2022, all arrivals must observe a three-day quarantine followed by a four-day period of self-initiated epidemic prevention to avoid spreading or catching the virus. Read more

Taiwan*'One-stop' service for new migrant domestic workers to begin next year

Taiwan's Ministry of Labor stated that country will start the one-stop service for newly arrived migrant domestic workers from 1 January 2023. The service will replace the 30-minute orientation given to newly arrived migrant domestic workers about the rules and regulations in Taiwan. Read more

Thailand*Thailand plans to launch 10-year visa to attract foreign experts

Thailand plans to launch a new 10-year golden visa intending to attract foreign experts in the country. The scheme will offer work visas across four categories and mainly aims to attract travelers working in the technology sectors and digital nomads. All applicants must have at least USD 1 million in assets and an annual income of at least USD 80,000. Applications for the scheme will open from 1 September 2022. Read more

United Arab Emirates*Dubai loosens COVID-19 entry rules for unvaccinated teens

Unvaccinated travelers between the ages of 13 and 16 are no longer required to take a RT-PCR test before entering the country. Thus, all unvaccinated travelers above the age of 16 must take a pre-entry RT-PCR test. Read more

Egypt*Egypt introduces conditional on-arrival visa for Bangladeshis

The Egyptian government introduced visa on-arrival for Bangladeshi citizens provided they hold valid used visas or residence permits from any country that has visa on-arrival agreement with Egypt like Japan, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the United States, the United Kingdom, or any country in the Schengen Area. Read more

France*France Relaxes Advisory on Travel to Sri Lanka

The French government eased the travel advisory for Sri Lanka advising its citizens to be cautious and to exercise vigilance throughout their trip to Sri Lanka. Read more

Germany*Indonesia settles passport trouble with Germany

The German embassy in Jakarta will consider Indonesian passports with add-on signatures as valid for visa applications. German officials earlier refused to recognize the Indonesian passports without a signature place holder. Read more

Lithuania*Lithuania Eases Employment Conditions for Foreigners

The Lithuanian authorities implemented the law on the legal status of foreigners which aims to simplify the employment conditions for nationals of other countries. The Law eased the conditions for issuing temporary residence permits for all foreign workers. Read more

Netherlands*Netherlands Introduces Long-Term Visas for Turkish Nationals That Were Previously Exempt

From 1 October 2022, Turkish citizens will be required to apply for a long-term visa if they plan to stay in the Netherlands for more than 90 days. Currently, highly skilled workers, entrepreneurs, and family unification seekers from Turkey are exempt from obtaining a long-term entry visa. Read more

Thomas Wolf
Head of KPMG's Global
Immigration Network
T: +49 30 530199-300
E: twolf@kpmg-law.com

social.kpmg

Privacy | Legal

© 2022 Copyright owned by one or more of the KPMG International entities. KPMG International entities provide no services to clients. All rights reserved.

KPMG refers to the global organization or to one or more of the member firms of KPMG International Limited ("KPMG International"), each of which is a separate legal entity. KPMG International Limited is a private English company limited by guarantee and does not provide services to clients. For more detail about our structure please visit <https://home.kpmg/governance>.

Member firms of the KPMG network of independent firms are affiliated with KPMG International. KPMG International provides no client services. No member firm has any authority to obligate or bind KPMG International or any other member firm vis-à-vis third parties, nor does KPMG International have any such authority to obligate or bind any member firm.

