

Reimagining the audit experience with KPMG Clara

In today's digital world, our lives are enriched by increasingly connected and shared experiences. Our audit is too with KPMG Clara.

Smart audit platform

KPMG Clara is KPMG's smart audit platform, designed to facilitate more seamless and transparent interactions between you and your engagement team. This secure platform offers a centralized portal that serves as a single source for the exchange of important information.

Through KPMG Clara, you can receive deeper insights associated with your audit in real-time. It can also unleash the potential of your data by helping you see meaningful patterns across your business at a deeper level than before.

Connecting YOU to the audit

Streamlining the audit from beginning to end

A personalized window into the audit

Throughout your audit, you'll have access to KPMG Clara for clients, giving you a 24/7 window into the status of your audit, all in one place.

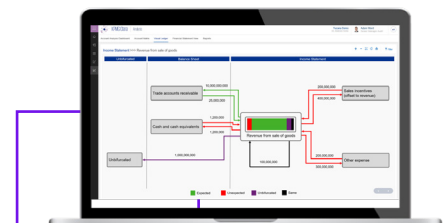

The net result is greater interaction with your engagement team—that consists of more targeted and meaningful conversations about specific findings, risks and insights.

Transformative capabilities

Your audit can also benefit from our alliances with leading technology companies—IBM Watson and Microsoft—working to ensure our technology and capabilities are second to none.

It's all part of the transformation of audit to harness the power of leading technology to provide higher quality results. Automation, including data analysis, predictive analytics and cognitive technology (artificial intelligence and machine learning) will increasingly come to the forefront.
