

Ask the Experts

All about exploring third-party risk management in the age of automation and GenAI

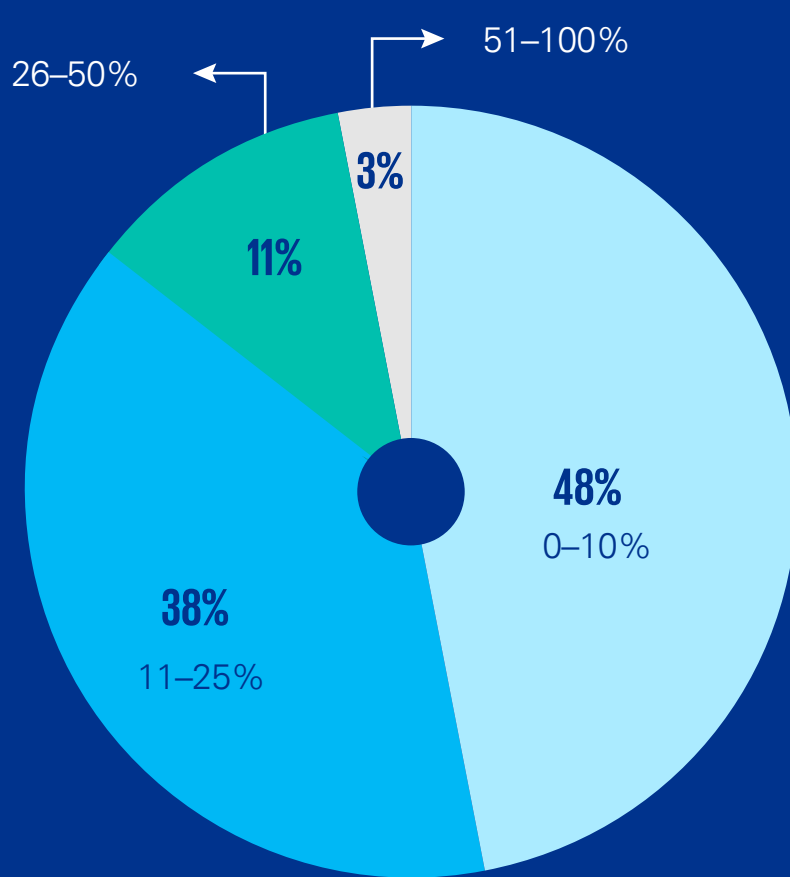

KPMG hosted the latest installment of Ask Experts KnowledgeCast series in September 2024. During this KnowledgeCast, we polled almost 800 professionals who hold various internal audit (IA) and risk positions at their respective companies

Here's what we learned...

**Due to rounding, percentages may not always equal 100%*

What percentage of your internal audit program is third-party risk management (TPRM)?

How well is your TPRM audit program performing?

What's the most important driver when focusing on your TPRM audit program?

Do you feel like you are properly resourced?
