

Business value and impact realization

Copilot for Microsoft 365 enabled by KPMG.

Unlock workforce productivity, improve organizational capabilities, and increase performance.

As we embark on a new era of AI, technologies such as Copilot for Microsoft 365 are promising to unlock workforce productivity and improve an organization's capabilities across all functions, businesses, and sectors.

Public research accessed from the 2024 Microsoft Work Trend Index report confirms the potential is real, with 70%* of professionals reporting increased productivity as a result. As a participant in the early access program, KPMG not only evaluated the capabilities of Copilot for Microsoft 365 technology but also assessed the business impact and value it can deliver to our organization and our clients. This led to KPMG embarking on our own internal Copilot for Microsoft 365 enterprise-wide deployment and developing configurable solutions to help our joint KPMG and Microsoft clients accelerate their Copilot for Microsoft 365 journey.
