

Ideas and Insights

In this issue: National Banking Symposium, boardroom views of AI, strengthening the CFO-audit committee relationship, AI and likely regulations, the tax cliff, and more.

April 2025

Webcasts

National Banking Symposium reveals staggering pace of change

It’s hard to overestimate the speed and significance of the transformations affecting banking today. In this webcast, you’ll see how banks are responding to the latest economic and sector outlooks, get relevant legislative and regulatory updates, and learn how banks are building trust in GenAI for banking.

National Banking Symposium–March 2025

What’s the boardroom’s view of AI?

Watch as Stanford Professor Erik Brynjolfsson, KPMG AI Go-to-Market Leader Per Edin, and Senior Advisor Claudia H. Allen of the Board Leadership Center delve into the state of AI today, examining the challenges to widespread adoption, emphasizing the importance of (re)training workers, and understanding GenAI’s capabilities as an autonomous agent.

State of AI: A Boardroom Perspective

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

First 100 days: Regulatory signals for AI

Shifts in AI regulation have occurred at all levels of government, with more than 800 bills introduced in 48 states so far in 2025. Our new report covers all aspects of expected changes in the patchwork of AI regulations, with tips for navigating the new landscape.

First 100 Days: Upcoming Regulatory Signals for AI

Finance

How to strengthen the CFO-audit committee relationship

As they grapple with expanding workloads, increased complexity, and ongoing digital disruptions, chief financial officers (CFOs) and audit committees can find it difficult to stay in sync. Our latest report charts the course to creating value for the business and its stakeholders.

Strengthening the CFO–Audit Committee Relationship

Tax

Staking a claim on unclaimed property

Tax directors and others can gain valuable insights into the unclaimed property and asset recovery landscape in today’s banking and capital markets industry. From legislative trends to peer behavior, this webcast discusses the unclaimed property issues that matter most.

Unclaimed Property Developments & Considerations in the Banking & Capital Markets Industry

Tax cliff: Battle of the budgets

The House recently passed a sprawling budget, increasing the odds of a tax bill via budget reconciliation this year. The Senate’s budget, meanwhile, doesn’t contemplate taxes. Can they get on the same page? Listen as we discuss what the House budget says about a tax bill and whether the Senate is even listening.

Tax Cliff: Battle of the Budgets

Learn about us:

kpmg.com