Legislative update: House Ways and Means approves four bills aimed at improving tax administration; JCT descriptions

The House Committee on Ways and Means today marked up and approved four bills aimed at improving tax administration.

In advance of the markup, the staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation (JCT) released descriptions of the bills and the amendments in the nature of a substitute.

H.R. 997, the “National Taxpayer Advocate Enhancement Act of 2025,” which would authorize the National Taxpayer Advocate (NTA) to appoint counsel in the Office of the Taxpayer Advocate to report directly to the NTA, was approved by a vote of 43-0.
