Legislative update: House passes continuing resolution to fund government

The U.S. House of Representatives last night passed (by a vote of 217-213) H.R. 1968—a continuing resolution to fund the federal government through the remainder of the 2025 fiscal year ending on September 30. Current government funding is set to expire March 14.

The Senate is expected to consider the legislation this week. The Senate must pass the resolution before March 15 to avert a partial government shutdown.
